Prob 12B

Re: Eich, Seth RyanJune 13, 2006*Page 2*CAUSE

On March 18, 2006, the offender was arrested in Union Gap, Washington, for the offense of driving under the influence. He pled guilty to this offense on March 21, 2006, in Union Gap Municipal Court case number 32772. The offender immediately notified the probation officer of his arrest and pled guilty at his first court appearance. The offender reported to the probation officer, he was celebrating the birth of his first child and drank too much. The offender enrolled in and completed residential treatment at the James Oldham Treatment Center on May 18, 2006, and is currently participating in outpatient treatment at Triumph Treatment Services. The offender's last violation behavior occurred in May 2005, when he submitted a positive urine test for marijuana. The court in Louisiana was notified with no action requested by the probation officer, as the offender was participating in treatment.

The offender was originally sentenced in the Western District of Louisiana. Transfer of jurisdiction to the Eastern District of Washington was requested and approved on April 10, 2006, as a result of the offender's new arrest. The offender began supervision on April 23, 2004. He has been on supervision for 2 years. The offender has been employed on a full-time basis for most of his supervision period. He is currently employed by Columbia Asphalt, as a laborer.

The requested modifications provide consequences for the new law violation, while allowing the offender to maintain employment to support his family and participate in substance abuse aftercare treatment. The urine and alcohol testing conditions are required to be in compliance with recent 9th Circuit case law. The offender has agreed to the requested modifications of his supervised release and has signed a waiver which is enclosed. It is respectfully recommended that the Court take judicial notice of the indicated violation behavior, but take no further action other than order the requested modifications.

Respectfully submitted,

by

Kevin Crawford
U.S. Probation Officer
